Mokah SoulFly

Mokah Soulfly (formerly Hunter) aka Waxing Moon, is a progressive, conscious songstress and hip-hop artist out of DFW (Dallas, Ft. Worth Metroplex) that has proven herself over the last 10 years to be a formidable Emcee/Singer/Songwriter on the DFW Hip-Hop Music Scene. With the soul-stirring yin yang combo of her melodic voice and flow coupled with the other side of the coin that is her intelligent and conscious spitfire tone and brand of delivery she proves not only to be a multi-talented vocalist but a formidable emcee respected in both female and male circles by fans and peers alike. Riding the buzz from the release of her smash single “My Shoes”, Mokah Soulfly released her freshman album titled, “Same Love, Different Day” as Hunter, on January 17, 2012 to much local and regional praise and positive reviews.

A new breed of artist and entrepreneur being both in one, Mokah accomplished all this through her very own indie label and multifaceted business One Face Entertainment.

Mokah is also the former host of the very popular internet radio and video show titled Grass Root Salute Radio Show that aired on Yessurr.com and Deep Ellum on Air; it ran from Feb 2013 to July 2016. A woman of many talents and abilities, she wrote, arranged, produced and cohosted the show alongside fellow cohost and writer for the show, her number one soul brother, confidant and trusted creative comrade Brenian Swift a capable emcee and vocalist in his own right.

After a long hiatus, Mokah dropped a new single in January of 2018 “Goin Thru” produced by famed MouseQuake; check it out on all streaming platforms. Also be on the lookout for a single with Grammy Award winning producer Jah Born, “Committed” which was released in summer of 2020. It landed her a #20 spot on the top R&B Soul Charts per The Radio Play Network.

Mokah Soulfly is dropped her sophomore album a joint project with producer M Slago out of Tennessee titled “Moja Na Maji” on April 21st, 2021 to much fan fare! This album is a Southern Neo-Soul Space and Trip Hop mixture full of her signature melodic grace and jazzy conscious flow. The title means “the one with water” in Swahili, it’s an ode to the Age of Aquarius. After only a couple of days the project is #2 for Soul and #9 for R&B/Soul on Bandcamp.
